

Robin's Restaurant
May 2006

TRAVEL | THREE-DAY WEEKEND

From top: Main Street Cambria; downtown bouquet; Linn's olallieberry pie.

Details

- Moonstone Beach. Along Moonstone Beach Dr. off Windsor Blvd.
- Lily's Coffeehouse. $; closed Tue (crêpes 11-4 Sat only). 2028 Main St.; 805/927-7259.
- The Vault Gallery. 2289 Main; www.vaultgallery.com or 805/927-0300.
- Sunfire Gallery. 2289 Main; 805/927-1800.
- Seekers Glass Gallery. 4090 Burton Dr.; www.seekersglass.com or 805/927-4352.
- Robin's Restaurant. $$$; lunch Mon-Sat, brunch Sun, dinner daily, 4095 Burton; 805/927-5007.
- Linn's Farmstore. $; 10-5 daily. Five miles east of town on Santa Rosa Creek Rd.; 805/927-8134.
- Harmony Cellars. Tasting $2. 3255 Harmony Valley Rd., Harmony; www.harmonycellars.com or 805/927-1625.
- The Sea Chest. $$$ (no credit cards accepted); dinner Wed-Mon. 6216 Moonstone Beach Dr.; 805/927-4514.

day one
Stroll the beach, art shop, eat some great olallieberry pie

The ideal start to a Cambria day is a walk at Moonstone Beach. You can take the boardwalk that follows the bluffs or walk along the beach, named for the white agates sometimes found here.

Head into the village for breakfast, where, on Saturdays, Lily's Coffeehouse serves crêpes on its patio. Then browse for art. The Vault Gallery is located in a 1920s bank building. Next door, Sunfire Gallery spotlights glass art by owner Larry E. Newsom III, while Seekers Glass Gallery's collection includes pieces by artists from around the country.

For lunch, Robin's Restaurant has an eclectic menu that features daily salad specials and a flavorful salmon bisque. Its vine-covered patio is one of Cambria's most appealing dining spots. Save room for dessert and drive up Santa Rosa Creek Road to Linn's Farmstore for its country setting and famous olallieberry pie. From here, double back to State 1, then head south a short distance to Harmony. While the old dairy town has seen busier times, you can watch glassblowing demonstrations, visit a pottery studio, and end your afternoon with wine tasting at Harmony Cellars. Then join the locals for oysters, clams, and other seafood at the Sea Chest on Moonstone Beach.

Robin's has an eclectic menu...

